†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

crores of students studying at primary and secondary level creative and diligent;

(b) whether Government would formulate a National Education Policy so that it could be implemented uniformly in all the States and the same should remain consistent with each and every Government;

(c) if so, by when, Government would take steps in this direction; and

(d) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. VALLABHABHAI RAMJIBHAI KATHIRIA): (a) to (d) The National Policy on Education (NPE) 1986, as modified in 1992, evolved on a national consensus, has laid down a comprehensive framework that guides the development of education in its entirity. The NPE provides for a National System of Education which implies that, upto a given level, all students, irrespective of caste, creed, location or sex, have access to education of a comparable quality. It includes a common education structure and a national curriculum framework which contains a common core alongwith other components, that are flexible, and envisages minimum levels of learning for each stage of education. The 10+2+3 structure has now been accepted in all parts of the country.
